Christopher,

We were watching home movies and saw you as a little boy. We did not see you as much as you grew older but you were always in our thoughts though and we loved hearing about you. We were excited to see you in April and looking forward to seeing you again in November, but now we will have to wait. We know you are in a better place watching over us and waiting for us. You are still loved down here. Love always from your cousin, Peezy

Missing You...

August 20, 2008

Christopher, you are greatly missed here on earth. I know that God must have needed you for some reason to take you at such a young age. Please look over your family from up in Heaven and help them find out the whole story surrounding your death. Your family will continue to be in my thoughts and prayers. You are loved.

Memories

all the gray you turned into colors...

Your Fiancee

I remember the first time we met. You knocked on my door and invited me to a party. I declined due to work the next day. You left me your number just in case. I called you immediately after you left and asked if you would mind helping me w/ my tv/dvd set-up. Afterwards you asked me out to dinner. I thought to myself you dont even know this guy, but since he was so nice to help me out maybe I should give dinner a try. So we went and had the time of our lives. We became best friends immediately and I think I fell in love with you that first date. I guess when you know someones your soul mate, you just know right. My coffee and dinner skills suck without you here. I call out to you everyday, but you dont answer me. I know that your with me though because I know you wouldnt want me to be alone. Remember how we were supposed to go to san fran together. Im leaving this week to do that memory for us. PLease protect me on my plane ride. You know how it scares me to fly. I love you monkey moo....God bless..Please wait for me in heaven oneday..If your a bird, im a bird!!!!!!

My Beloved Son & Shenandoah

Good Morning Christopher: Remember when you came home every summer just so we could go to Skyline Drive and hike Mary's Rock? After your death, John took me up to Skyline Drive and I could feel your presence everywhere. I love you and miss you, Mommy

My Beloved Son 4 ever

Christopher: Do you remember when you were very young and you used to sing the "Rubber Tree Plant" song? I can still hear you singing it as if it were yesterday. I know you are looking down on us with your beautiful smiling face. I love you so much!!!! Please be patient and wait for me. With all my love, Mommy

Big Brother

I remember this one time when we were getting ready to head to South Carolina. Mom and I were going to follow you back down there. Anyways, you and I were down at the barn feeding the horses and you were giving them fresh water. I was in one of the stalls when I suddenly heard some angry words. I peeked out of the stall to see you soaked in water. I laughed so hard and you were so mad.

I miss you. . .

Chris

I'll never forget the first evening we all arrived at the OBX and we were all walking on the beach and as I looked around and saw you and all of our family together, I remember feeling such a great sense of closeness between all of us. Even though it was so brief, I will remember that moment forever. You had a smile as big as the sun and a soul as gentle and calm as a light ocean breeze...

whenever I see the sunlight and feel a gentle breeze blowing, I will see your face and your memory will live in my heart forever. We are all truly blessed to have had you in our lives.

Love forever, Auntie Connie

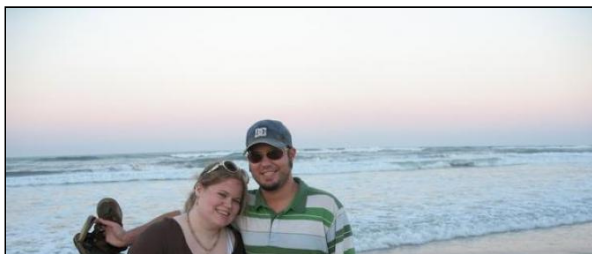

To :Christopher

Well i don't have many but I would have to say my favorite one was: When Laren, Christopher and I went to Shoppers the grocery store and we listened to crazy game of poker. We all had so much fun.

Miss You, Jessica

Beloved Son

It makes me so happy that we spent our vacation together at the OBX. I did not know that this would be the last time I saw you alive but my memories of you keep me going. We had so much fun with the family at the beach, in the hot tub, climbing the lighthouse and eating our meals together. I know you, John and Brandon had a great time renting those jet skies. Those precious memories are keeping us going each day. I love you with all my heart, Mommy.

Life Story

every hour, every thought, every smile...

June 7, 1983

Dear Christopher: I just wanted to write and share with you again the day you were born. It was on Tuesday, June 7, 1983, that I went to the doctor's and was told to go home and pack my bag and check in to Fairfax Hospital. It was a tough delivery and you finally arrived at 8:04 p.m. This is the day my world began when our eyes met for the first time. Your grandparents couldn't wait to see you. Mammo and Bap-bap couldn't wait to hold you and then Momma Pat had to hold you and everyone fell in love with you. You have been such a joy from the day you were born, growing up and becoming the man you were. I will cherish our camping trips; hikes in the mountains; your first trip to the beach; all your birthdays; your favorite color; movie; cars; and food - the list could go on. When Momma Pat encouraged you to move in with her at the beach and attend college my heart was torn when you moved out. But I knew you would leave me one day and I had to be strong. A mother never wants to see their child grow up and leave the nest but we must because we know that you will make your own life and hopefully meet the woman you will marry and have children with. Oh how I wish you had the chance to marry and have a child of your own. It makes me so angry that GOD took you at such a young age. I will never understand why. So my love, please be patient, I will be looking into your eyes again the same way we did on June 7th, 1983. With all my love, Mommy. ❤️
